

the others pass away? The world wonders.

Bollocks is kidding himself.

So long as I get any Brit mags I will send them to you. Oh how have the mighty fallen. Though H&S never was a fully dyed muscle mag, it did have certain standars--- one of which included USING all the prominents of their days as is done now. No change here.

VIGOUR was a fine little mag as was Reg Park's mag for a while. At I think Park Senior ruled the roost here and it is possible he screwed it up for Reg Jr.

Ah Joseph. I should be spoiled like you. I sit here day after dreary day talking to noone but myself--- and in that I must admit it is a change total to somea with a little sense--- no one phones. No one comes around. I am LONEY. So how lucky YOU are.

Presently I am sitting here typing, sweating my balls off. It has been 103 for six days now and the humidity and heat factor has raised that reading to 116!!! I have a horrible case of heat rash. I am overed all over my chest, arms and back. I can do nothing about it but itch. I can't sleep and if I could afford air conditioning it would be in pnto if not faster.

Death seems a wonderul passage from tis world to whatever lies in waiting. I am fed pnto the bloody teeth. Fed up.

I must grin and bear it I guess.

I'll bet if La Todola wanted some info from you he'd bash the typewriter fast enough.

I can't get out of the house to get any beer and if I could I doubt if it could satisfy me any better than cold water.

Adios and to quote an old Maori phrase

kia Ora, ( Kia Ora--- be happy be healthy)

Ohas
