Dear Joe,

Thanks for your letter post dated September 29th, here on the 1st of October. Please do forgive me for not replying to your letter a tad faster, but a have been doing little these days except sit in front of the book tube and nodding off.

Thank you too for the enclosed xerox. This I finnd most interesting and I see, as you remark, a very lively year c ning up if McMahons plans go through.

Firzt there will be some lovely law suits. You can depend on it that Joe will watch what is done like a hawk, and will sue at the drop of a fedora.

It has always bee my iponion that the "fan mail" is most carefully monitored at the place where the hils are wooded and who brings in the most and helps sell the most "food" supplements wins the Mr O. Also, despite what they say, the boobs are still shooting up with steroids—— we have that prize money you know. Who fits Joe's present image, his "policy," wins the Mr O.

Not too much news. There is a rumor floating around that Joe has had some prostate problems and has undergone some surgical procedure. How much truth there is in this I have no idea.

I don't know if I told you about Terry Todd's protege, Mark Henry. He is 6 feet 3 inches, scales 400 pounds and isn't a bit fat, but muscular and proportionate and athletic, avle to dunk a basket ball as 'f he wa normal basket ball player. He is just 19 years of age.

He is being coached by Spassov for OLYMFIC LIFTING Two m onths into training he can already snatch 312 pounds in fairly good style. The other day he took part in a power lifting contest doing only the squat. Drug free. He made a new world record of 937 pounds and astonished the audience by going right down, not just t ighs parallel. Spassov says he will be statching 500 in two to three years. He is a very personable young man, intell gent too, but he is dystexic and is taking remedial classes at the U of T.

You can bet your pattooza that Joe has the energy to fight MacMahon. He has created an empt that brings him in a profit of 20 odd MILLION a year and he isnt gonna let that go without a hell of a struggle. It will be a bitter battle.

I entirely agreee w th you that the fiest to hop it will be Fred Hatfield. And, if Cory has gone, it wont be too long before Jeff fol hows her. Repend on it.

If you havent already, I suggest y u read MUSCLE WARS, Rick Wayne's book. Revealing.

Hope all is well with you and yours. Here my grand daughter made the honor roll at school and the two boys are heading their classes. Little imps.

Weather here is unseasonably warm. Up in the close to the 30's during the day and in the low sixties at night. You don't need a blanket since the humidity is very high. Are you
