I cant see where MD has any complaint re weider refusing adwrtsig. After all, would Gimbels entertain Macys ? I feel pretty certain that Joe has the right to refuse advertising material or any legal, or plausabl reason. And I find it hard to believe, that with a house organ of their own. MD has no advertising outlet. UNLESS the parent company OWNING MD is trying to avertise their brand of piss emancers and has been refused. Again,I see no conflict in W weider refusing their ads. Interesting situation this.

As for YORK CLAIMING they have 70% of all arbellsales. I dont believe it. Korea, Japan and Taiwan all undercut US steel casting prices, or iron cast ing prices for that atter.
