

with steroids, and why ~~not~~ resort to surgery to give you what Nature failed to provide you with. In fact I have often wondered how long it was gonna take the males to get onto the ~~secret~~ women have been using since pay dot. After all they have so any "falsies" around them it is hard to tell where Nature sops and artifice begins. False boobs, False hips, false eye lashes--- ~~The~~ ^{the} only thing they dont have that's false is between their legs--- and the Japanese, artful cusses that they are, have already cashed in on this--- it is now possible. In Japan, to go in and have your maidenhead replaced after you have lost it--- gone is that old line from Kipling--- "You've only one virginity to lose"--- Now it can be lost three times three and over again--- and all for a surgeon's fee. Luvrly.

I am told--- HONEST--- that they now make WIGS for bald pussies. Human type that is. I aint kidding.

Civilization is going down the drain in a hand cart.

Who in the hell is Catherine Kelly? ~~Google~~ has never mentioned her to me. Pray tell.

IM selling well? I dont believe it. I now get, for some strange reason, IM.

Balik did promise me he'd send me a comp copy. he getting my articles dirt cheap and that bloody cheap skate who had the mag before him, making me PKY to get a copy of the mag in which one of my articles appeared--- written for FREE of course. I think it is getting worse. It is dull dull dull, and blood boring to boot. Tepid Tepper keeps it up, and writes like a souped up version of ~~Reb~~ of Sunnybrook Farm, using all the Hollywood mag cliches and redundancies. ~~Stann~~ can write an article without telling all and sundry how wonderful he is, how he is a practising hypnotist, ~~Kung Foo~~ ~~per~~ ~~and~~ ~~Chop~~ ~~Se~~ ~~doyen~~ and such. ~~Stann~~ Licht has at least three of his hyper super duper articles in every issue. Tepid Tepper has the same and so on. The articles bore one to the point of dizzyin frustration and no attempt is made to reach out and grab the reader by the throat, shake him and get his attention. It is so boring I recommend it as far beter than a sleeping pill. Take it to bed with you and a good night's resst is guaranteed--- FAST.

But nough. Haul to the family, salaams to you, Write soon and comment on all my ~~drivel~~.

Best
